

There is only one major problem with the court system in New Hampshire. The Supreme Court should be prevented from going into areas where they don't belong, such as school funding.

Howard Nelson
Washington, New Hampshire