

I spoke yesterday at the afternoon session in Salem. I also submitted written comments. Last evening I spoke with a commission member and I asked about the distribution of written comments. This member believes that written submissions are not being distributed to members. Will you please comment on that statement. Will you please comment on the distribution process.

Thankyou,

David H. Coltin