

I would like to just make one comment on the sessions for the "Listening Courts": I believe that these sessions were not well advertised and what the real meaning of the sessions were about. I understand that there were only so much monies for advertising, but it did not get well advertised, but to only people that were already involved in certain areas of concerns in legislation.

Thank you
Charlie Smith
Orford, NH