

6. What is the most positive thing you have heard about the state courts? What is the most negative thing you have heard about the state courts?

Additional Comments:

The courts typically are flexible to the needs of the clients

There are judges who ruin people's lives by ruling way too strictly - our prison industrial complex is out of control