

6. What is the most positive thing you have heard about the state courts? I have only been involved in visitation cases and most cases the courts are biased towards women

What is the most negative thing you have heard about the state courts? That some men have taken the law in there own hands which ha ended up in murder just so that they can see there kids.

Additional Comments: